An Open Invitation

A new statue of Swami Vivekananda will be unveiled in front of the temple on May 26 at 10 am.

This statue would replace the present statue. The statue would be unveiled by Revered Bhavaniprana Pravrajika, President of Sri Sarada Math and Mission, Guntur, India. Important dignitaries like Indian High Commissioner, Speaker of Canadian parliament, Mayor of Halifax and others are being invited to this special occasion.

All neighbors around the temple are also invited. The event will start with invocation by our temple priests.

On Sunday 27th there would be a special lecture by Rev Divyanandapran Pravrajika, a widely acclaimed motivational speaker, just after the puja. There would be special bhajans by Rev Bhavanipranaji, an accomplished Karnatak musician.
